8.12 The Sabbatical Officers shall represent the views of the Union Members as expressed by Executive, Union Council, Union General Meeting and Referenda.

8.13 The sabbatical officers shall take collective responsibility for the day-to-day functions of the Union.

8.14 Areas of competence for the sabbaticals shall be allocated by the President at the beginning of each year, following consultation with the Vice-Presidents.

8.15 The President shall have full membership and shall be the principal spokesperson and chief executive officer of the Union and co-ordinator of all activities of the Union.

He/She shall be the chief representative of the students and shall have five main areas of responsibility: finance, representation, organisation, supervision and guidance of policy.

He/She shall automatically take up office on the Governing Body of the Institute at the beginning of his/her term of office and the outgoing President shall be deemed to have resigned from the Governing Body of the Institute.

He/She shall have specific responsibility for liaison and integration with sites of the Institute not located on the Bishopstown campus.

8.16 The Vice President Education shall have full membership of the Union.

He/She shall from time to time act for and on behalf of the President in the President's absence at his/her request.

He/She is responsible for the implementation and development of the Unions' educational policies subject to the general direction of Union Council, General Meetings and Referendum.

He/She will undertake such research, surveys etc. as shall contribute to the development of educational policy locally and nationally.

He/She shall be responsible for the provision of careers information.

8.17 The Vice President Welfare shall have full membership of the Union. He/She shall from time to time act for and on behalf of the President in the President's absence at his/her request.

He/she shall be familiar with the Welfare matters that concern all members and shall represent their interest in matters relating to their welfare.

He/She shall be the chief co-ordinator of a Welfare Awareness Programme throughout his/her term of office.

8.18 The Communications Officer shall aid in the development of the Union's information and communication policy. He/She shall be familiar with all the communication policies. He/She shall be familiar with all the communication mediums available to him/her and use them to their full potential.

He/She is to keep the membership of the Union informed through the provision of a regular Union Publication.

He/She shall be the convener of the editorial board. This board shall ensure that Union Publications are not offensive or degrading to any section of Union membership or society as a whole.

8.19 The Entertainments Officer is responsible for the provision of entertainments and other forms of social and cultural activity for the members of the Union in conjunction with the sabbatical officers and Union Staff.

He/She shall endeavour to cater for all entertainment tastes.

8.20 The Projects Officer's role will be primarily as a support for the sabbatical officers in the areas of campaigning, Union development and projects.

8.21 A sabbatical officer may only be removed from office by a two thirds majority vote of a referendum.

8.22 In the event of the resignation or removal from office of the President the executive shall elect either the Vice President Education or the Vice President Welfare, to fill the vacancy. There shall be an immediate by-election for the vacant Vice President position in accordance with the election schedule.

8.23 In the event of the resignation or removal from office of the Vice President, Education there shall be an immediate by-election for the position of Vice President Education, in accordance with the election schedule.

8.24 In the event of the resignation or removal from office of the Vice President Welfare there shall be an immediate by-election for the position of Vice President Welfare, in accordance with the election schedule.

8.25 In the event of the resignation or removal from office of all the sabbatical officers simultaneously there shall be an immediate by-election for all positions in accordance with the election schedule.

8.26 A non-sabbatical executive officer may be removed from office by a two-thirds majority vote of Union Council or General Meeting.

8.27 In the event of the resignation or removal from office of a non-sabbatical officer a by-election will take place in accordance with the election schedule.

8.28 The resignation of an executive officer shall only take effect upon notification of same by letter to the Union Executive.

8.29 Site officers may be required at times on campuses other than Bishopstown. They shall be elected according to the schedule of elections from the membership of that site. They will have the right to attend the executive in a speaking but non-voting role. The existence of such an officer shall not remove any responsibility of the other officers to the members on that campus.

Interpretation:

9.1 In the event of a dispute as to the interpretation of any part of this constitution, excepting Schedule B, the ruling of the President shall be sought. In the event of a challenge to the President's ruling the decision of the General Meeting shall be final.

Indemnity:

10.1 Every officer, appointee or member of staff of the Union shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Union against all losses or liability which s/he may sustain or incur in or about the execution of his or her office or otherwise in relation there to and no officer, appointee or member of staff shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune, which may happen to or be incurred by the Union in the execution of the duties of his or her office or in relation thereto. Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect their liability for the consequences of any negligent or fraudulent act on their part.

External memberships and affiliations:

11.1 The Union shall affiliate annually to external organisations where it believes such membership will be beneficial to the membership of the Union and where that organisation's aims, objectives and ethos are not contradictory to the Union's own aims, objectives and ethos.

11.2 Such memberships can ordinarily be approved by a quorate general meeting; however, this membership must be confirmed by referendum if one is called by:

SCHEDULE C - Code of Conduct for Sabbatical Officers

1 General information

1.1 Term of office and salary

Sabbatical Officers commence their paid full-time role at the Union on 1st June (excepting those who may commence their role following a bi-election) and their terms runs until 31st May. Sabbatical Officers are paid in line with the first point of the General Service Scale as per paragraph 8.9.

1.2 Working hours and location

The salary reflects a 39 hour working week (excluding lunch breaks). Working times will vary but Sabbatical Officers are normally expected to be in the office or at work between 9am – 5pm every weekday.

Sabbatical Officers may sometimes need to work later hours and at weekends in order to meet the needs of the role. Some flexibility regarding the 'working week' is therefore acceptable in order to meet the required hours of work, by prior agreement with the Sabbatical Officers and the General Manager.

Sabbatical Officers are primarily based at the Union's offices in the Students Centre for the purpose of work.

1.3 Holidays

Sabbatical Officers are entitled to 22 days annual leave (pro rata) which must be agreed in advance with the Sabbatical Officers and the appropriate holiday booking procedure is completed. Sabbatical Officers must submit annual leave requests on the appropriate form to the General Manager. This allowance is in addition to 6 statutory holidays but is inclusive of any compulsory closure of the Union offices over the Christmas/Easter period.

2 Induction and Training

2.1 Sabbatical Officers are expected to participate fully in induction programmes and undertake such advance reading and preparation as is necessary for the role.

2.2 Various formal training courses will be arranged/booked as part of the induction and/or during the year, and Sabbatical Officers are expected to attend and fully participate in these.

2.3 Training courses may be generic or more specific skills-related courses specific to an individual's needs, to enable each Sabbatical Officer to be fully effective in their role.

2.4 Sabbatical Officers will also be expected to undertake on-going desktop research and reading as necessary for their roles (e.g. Sabbatical Officers will need to be fully conversant with the Institute's Policies and Regulations).

2.5 Sabbatical Officers will also be expected to be fully conversant with the Union Constitution and the Schedules.

3 Working practices

3.1 Timekeeping and absence from work

3.1.1. If the Sabbatical Officers are not in a position to be in work by the agreed time, they should inform the Union Administration Assistants by 9am on that day.

3.1.2 Use shared calendars in an open and transparent manner- i.e. the purpose of the calendar item must be stated e.g. Academic Council, Safety Committee or Student Appointment.

3.1.3 Complete paperwork for annual leave and sick leave in a timely manner.

3.1.4 In the event of unauthorised absenteeism (i.e. outside of authorised annual leave or medically certified absenteeism), the equivalent pay will be deducted from the Sabbatical Officer's salary.

3.2 Performance

Sabbatical Officers must:

3.2.1 Ensure students queries are responded to in a timely fashion.

3.2.2 Ensure students are always given accurate information by consulting with other Sabbatical Officers, Union and Institute staff or outside agencies.

3.2.3 Ensure office space is maintained as a professional place, and kept in a tidy and orderly fashion.

3.2.4 Complete General Meeting Officer Reports detailing all activities carried out with reference to their monthly work-plan and their objectives, including a progress report.

3.2.5 Attend a formal performance review meetings with the Union Executive on request. These meetings will cover attendance, and leave taken. An action plan for the next month will be agreed at this meeting. If under-performance is identified in any area, then additional actions may be required to correct this and/or ensure that that targets are met - for example, further training may be necessary. The General Manger may be invited to attend.

3.3 Attendance at meetings

3.3.1 Attend formal Institute meetings (e.g. Governing Authority, Academic Council etc.) as required by the Institute and agreed during the induction period.

3.3.2 Attend Union meetings and other meetings as required.

3.3.3 Sabbatical Officers will read all relevant documentation in advance of Union or Institute meeting including but not limited to the minutes, and ensure that they are fully conversant with all agenda items with the exception of unknown AOB items.
